EAST BOULDER RETAIL SPACE AT WEATHERVANE

Weathervane presents an exceptional retail opportunity in East Boulder, positioned along South Boulder Creek and the Boulder Bike Path. Building Two offers flexible floor plan options ideal for retail, wellness, and service-oriented users seeking visibility and convenience in a growing submarket. The setting combines natural surroundings with established neighborhoods, nearby recreation, and a steady daytime population driven by surrounding office and industrial employment centers.

The adjacent Building One is currently undergoing tenant improvements as the community prepares to welcome Decent Bagel, which will serve fresh, homemade bagels and locally roasted coffee, and Odd Rabbit, a restaurant offering modern Asian fusion cuisine. Join these incoming tenants in a thoughtfully balanced retail mix that reflects the neighborhood's character.

Space from 1,500 to 9,051 square feet in Building Two is available now.

WELCOME TO EAST BOULDER

East Boulder has evolved into one of the city's most vibrant employment and recreational hubs, home to a diverse mix of industrial users, creative offices, and growing residential density. With trail access, open space, and nearby amenities such as Flatirons Golf Club and East Boulder Community Park, this corridor provides a strong foundation for lifestyle and service-oriented retail. The area continues to benefit from Boulder's limited housing supply, a highly educated workforce, and major employers, including Apple's East Boulder campus, which spans 200,000 square feet and employs over 700 people.

Quick access to Foothills Parkway and the Highway 36 corridor ensures easy regional connectivity for both residents and visitors.
